Warranty Statement

Warranty Policy

AA Battery Service warrants its battery product to be free of any manufacturer defects relating to workmanship or materials only.

Any customer with a valid manufacturer defect of their battery product, AA Battery Service will replace the battery free of charge.

Manufacturer defects will normally occur in the first 3 months of a battery's life.

Warranty Coverage

Our warranty does not cover the following instances where the customer is wholly responsible for the care, maintenance, and correct application of the battery product.

- Flat batteries – where the battery has not been fully recharged to 100% State Of Charge (SOC) and retested by a qualified technician using suitable equipment.
- Repetitive flat batteries – where a history of flat battery events have impacted the overall State Of Health (SOH) of the battery beyond repair.
- Incorrect battery or installation or application for your vehicle.
- Lack of vehicle maintenance, excessive drain, or faulty vehicle charging systems.
- Lack of vehicle use, only frequent very short trips, or prolonged storage.
- Physical damage to the battery case or its components post-installation.
- Any additional costs incurred by the purchaser associated with third-party repairs or replacements where AA Battery Service has not been contacted to provide a first opportunity for remedy.

Warranty Period

Our warranty commences from the date of purchase on the sales invoice and is covered for the specific warranty periods depending on the customer application that the battery is being used, as follows:

- Private use vehicles
- 36-month Premium batteries
- 24-month Extra Heavy-Duty batteries.
- 24 months AGM and EFB batteries.
- 12–24-month Marine batteries.
- 12-month warranty applies to all Commercial fitments.
- 6- month Taxi, Uber, and Courier fitments.

Warranty Claims

For valid warranty claims, AA Battery Service will require a 'Proof of Purchase' from the customer. This should be a sales invoice with the customer's name, date, vehicle details and battery sale price.

Our warranty is not transferable, and all warranty conditions remains solely with the original purchaser.
